Attract and retain more union members

Give your people another reason to join

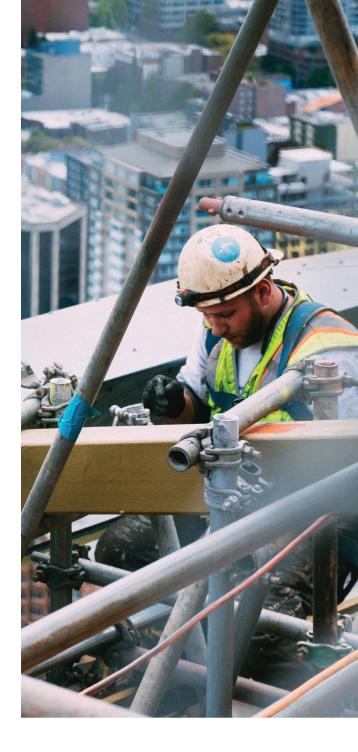

Today's professional association union members expect traditional benefits such as networking and career development opportunities. When it comes to attraction and retention, associations need to bolster their benefits with non-traditional offerings. That's where CrossCountry Mortgage comes in.

As your Affinity Partner, we'll provide your union members with a non-traditional benefit that includes homebuying assistance, homeowner education, and substantial mortgage savings. We'll find the best financing solution to meet their needs – whether they are looking to refinance their current loan, purchase their first home, or buy investment properties – and extend this benefit to their family members as well.

Add our Preferred Mortgage Savings Plan to your list of benefits.

total savings up to $2,198*

We look forward to meeting with you to discuss everything CrossCountry Mortgage can offer your company through an Affinity Partnership.
